

Conversation

Read the conversation and underline the countries (color red), nationalities (color green), and languages (color yellow).

Ms. Ann: Boys and girls, today we will meet some students from other countries. They will tell us about their countries.
Zhang Wei is from China.

Zhang Wei: Yes. I am Chinese.
Nǐ hǎo. We have The Great Wall of China.

Charles: What does “Nǐ hǎo” mean?

Zhang Wei: It means “Hello” in Chinese. It’s the common way to greet in our language.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Zhang Wei. Now let’s hear from Lakshmi. She’s from India.

Lakshmi: I am Lakshmi and I am Indian. We have the Taj Mahal.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Lakshmi. What about you, Isabelle?

Isabelle: Bonjour! I’m from France and I’m French.

Ms. Ann: Could you tell us something about France?

Isabelle: Of course! In France, we speak French, and we have the Eiffel Tower. It’s an iconic symbol of our country.

Conversation

Read the conversation and underline the countries (color red), nationalities (color green), and languages (color yellow).

Ms. Ann: Boys and girls, today we will meet some students from other countries. They will tell us about their countries.
Zhang Wei is from China.

Zhang Wei: Yes. I am Chinese.
Nǐ hǎo. We have The Great Wall of China.

Charles: What does “Nǐ hǎo” mean?

Zhang Wei: It means “Hello” in Chinese. It’s the common way to greet in our language.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Zhang Wei. Now let’s hear from Lakshmi. She’s from India.

Lakshmi: I am Lakshmi and I am Indian. We have the Taj Mahal.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Lakshmi. What about you, Isabelle?

Isabelle: Bonjour! I’m from France and I’m French.

Ms. Ann: Could you tell us something about France?

Isabelle: Of course! In France, we speak French, and we have the Eiffel Tower. It’s an iconic symbol of our country.

Conversation

Read the conversation and underline the countries (color red), nationalities (color green), and languages (color yellow).

Ms. Ann: Boys and girls, today we will meet some students from other countries. They will tell us about their countries.
Zhang Wei is from China.

Zhang Wei: Yes. I am Chinese.
Nǐ hǎo. We have The Great Wall of China.

Charles: What does “Nǐ hǎo” mean?

Zhang Wei: It means “Hello” in Chinese. It’s the common way to greet in our language.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Zhang Wei. Now let’s hear from Lakshmi. She’s from India.

Lakshmi: I am Lakshmi and I am Indian. We have the Taj Mahal.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Lakshmi. What about you, Isabelle?

Isabelle: Bonjour! I’m from France and I’m French.

Ms. Ann: Could you tell us something about France?

Isabelle: Of course! In France, we speak French, and we have the Eiffel Tower. It’s an iconic symbol of our country.

Conversation

Read the conversation and underline the countries (color red), nationalities (color green), and languages (color yellow).

Ms. Ann: Boys and girls, today we will meet some students from other countries. They will tell us about their countries.
Zhang Wei is from China.

Zhang Wei: Yes. I am Chinese.
Nǐ hǎo. We have The Great Wall of China.

Charles: What does “Nǐ hǎo” mean?

Zhang Wei: It means “Hello” in Chinese. It’s the common way to greet in our language.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Zhang Wei. Now let’s hear from Lakshmi. She’s from India.

Lakshmi: I am Lakshmi and I am Indian. We have the Taj Mahal.

Ms. Ann: Thank you, Lakshmi. What about you, Isabelle?

Isabelle: Bonjour! I’m from France and I’m French.

Ms. Ann: Could you tell us something about France?

Isabelle: Of course! In France, we speak French, and we have the Eiffel Tower. It’s an iconic symbol of our country.