

Types of conflicts Date: _____

Read each description of the following situations, then write "IP" for interpersonal conflict, "IN" for internal conflict, or "S" for societal conflict.

1. Feeling scared about going on a roller coaster but wanting to overcome the fear. _____
2. Choosing between two favorite desserts at a restaurant. _____
3. Friends having a misunderstanding about a secret. _____
4. Feeling guilty about not doing a chore you were supposed to do. _____
5. Two friends arguing over which game to play. _____
6. Siblings fighting over the TV remote. _____
7. Environmental activists protesting against a factory's pollution. _____
8. Wanting to sleep in but knowing you have to wake up early for school. _____
9. A person deciding whether to confront a friend about a hurtful comment. _____
10. A parent and child having a disagreement about bedtime. _____
11. A town divided over whether to build a new shopping mall or a park. _____
12. Deciding whether to stand up to a bully or avoid confrontation. _____
13. Feeling torn between helping a friend with a problem and finishing your own homework. _____
14. Classmates competing for the same role in a school play. _____
15. Teammates on a sports team having a disagreement during practice. _____

Types of conflicts Date: _____

Read each description of the following situations, then write "IP" for interpersonal conflict, "IN" for internal conflict, or "S" for societal conflict.

1. Feeling scared about going on a roller coaster but wanting to overcome the fear. _____
2. Choosing between two favorite desserts at a restaurant. _____
3. Friends having a misunderstanding about a secret. _____
4. Feeling guilty about not doing a chore you were supposed to do. _____
5. Two friends arguing over which game to play. _____
6. Siblings fighting over the TV remote. _____
7. Environmental activists protesting against a factory's pollution. _____
8. Wanting to sleep in but knowing you have to wake up early for school. _____
9. A person deciding whether to confront a friend about a hurtful comment. _____
10. A parent and child having a disagreement about bedtime. _____
11. A town divided over whether to build a new shopping mall or a park. _____
12. Deciding whether to stand up to a bully or avoid confrontation. _____
13. Feeling torn between helping a friend with a problem and finishing your own homework. _____
14. Classmates competing for the same role in a school play. _____
15. Teammates on a sports team having a disagreement during practice. _____